

ApexHaven Properties — Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: What is the mandatory earnest money deposit (EMD)?

Answer: ApexHaven requires a minimum earnest money deposit of 3.0% on residential purchases and 5.0% on commercial transactions. EMD must be wired directly to First American Title or Chicago Title escrow within two (2) business days of mutual execution.

Q2: Does ApexHaven allow Dual Agency representation?

Answer: No. To uphold strict fiduciary standards and eliminate conflicts of interest, ApexHaven maintains a strict prohibition against Dual Agency. Buyers bidding on ApexHaven listings must engage an independent outside broker or sign an unrepresented customer waiver.

Q3: How are showings arranged for luxury properties over $2.5M?

Answer: Requires minimum 24-hour advance notice along with verified Proof of Funds (POF) or an active institutional pre-approval letter prior to entry access.

Q4: What happens if an appraisal comes in lower than the contracted price?

Answer: Under an appraisal contingency, the buyer may renegotiate the price, bridge the cash deficit, or terminate the contract with a 100% full refund of their earnest money deposit within 5 business days.
